Dec. 22.^d 1868.

My dear Mr. Hill,

I have called at the "Oriental" twice in vain, to see you - I have just called and learned that you had just left for Brooklyn. Now I expect to be in Brooklyn on Thursday, and shall remain there several days - at 178 Astor St., So. Brooklyn - at my brother's Mr.
George Allins. I shall be delighted to see you there, or if I can learn where you are - I will call on you. I am at present at my brother Charles' 42 West 36th St.

and shall return here after I have made my visit to Brooklyn - I must endeavour to see you if possible. Should you be near me, at either of these places - 42. W. 36th St. or 178 Amity St. Brooklyn please call. Love to you both From your loving friend S. S. Arnold.
