

245. N. Charles St., Baltimore.

Epiphany morn'g

My dear Doctor,

Your kind welcome letter, announcing your approach, is just received.

I thought next Sunday may not be the best for your own particular work, it will be, however, it is our appointed day for Foreign Missionary collection.

The Sunday next

Brotherhood of Baltimore, before which a sermon will be delivered, at which most of the Clergy will be expected to be present.

I can procure you an opportunity to address St. Paul's, I think, on Th. deek, in the afternoon. On Monday, if you consist, I want to create some friends to pay their respects to you & Mrs. Hill, and then from your own lips the story in detail.

after is promised to Bishop Morris and Oregon.

We shall be delighted to see you and Mr. Hill on Saturday, and hope you will be able to remain longer than you promise.

Sunday morning you shall command my pulpit—for Athens. Sunday night I would try to arrange for you a joint service, but that it is bespoken for the Church

My name will be under open to you.

You had better take the noon train, which leaves Broad St. Station a little before 12 o'clock, and is due here about half past three.

We shall dine at half past four, or soon after.

Yours sincerely,

My daughter joins me in affectionate regards to Mrs. Hill & family. Remember me cordially to Mr. & Mrs. Coffin, and believe me

Yours with <sup>very</sup> sincere affection

Wm. Beecher
