Rev^d Dr Hill

Dear Sir

Having dined at Paul & Kinglands Esq yesterday, when the subject of Missions was introduced, your name was mentioned among the number, when Mrs Kingland remarked she should like very much to see you, having known you from a child I mentioned to her having had the pleasure of ma-king your acquaintance one morning at the Lodgings of my Cousin T. W. C. Moore Esq; she then requested me to call on my cousin and request him to inform you that she would be pleased to have you call on her, which I did when he informed me that I would find you at the Oriental Hotel in La Fayette Place, on calling there they informed me you had gone to Brooklyn, and was stopping at the residence of Mr Lempeves 57 Columbia Street, where I now address you. shall be pleased to receive a call from you when passing our Store. Mr Knigsland's residence is in 5th Avenue corner 17th No 114. as Mrs Kingsland seldom goes out you will find her in at almost any hour

very respects

S. V. B. Moore

Mrs Kingsland's maiden name was Aletta Mersman her father and my Mother were brother & sister conse-quently she is my cousin
