

Dear Doctor Will:
I was very glad to receive your kind and welcome letter which caused me great joy, I have so much need of your affection. This very first thing I had from others was the dear whose I bear to my great satisfaction all about Wpshin, and about the examination of our school. Yesterday afternoon Mrs Worcester called in for me and we drove to a very nice country on the top of a beautiful mountain, there is a remarkable on a magic vision on a mountain by which to pass the whole day on Tuesday at Mrs Worcester's

Worcester.
13/15 August - 66.

and on the afternoon we intend to visit Pior where all the criminals are emprisoned. I am in despair, we cannot go any more to stay at Mrs Chrysantho-poulos country house there is great fear of the celebrated robber Lincos who is about Panayirna.
Every thing you had the kindness to send me, was safely brought to me.
Therefore I have, since my arrival two pamphlets, five Opzariopoi's and three Nojovs, which I gave between our friends here. I should like to have some more of the nojovs. I am very happy to hear that Mrs Gill is in her element, no doubt her face is beaming with joy.

We agree very well in what concerns the families here, I like very much Mr. Wood's family, but Mrs. Chyseau is the best of all.

Mrs. Green came several times and invited me to her country house she is an excellent lady.

I have so many things to tell you about Patras that when I return safely home for many days we shall have I hope pleasant hours on the terrace. The inhabitants expect rain again which unfortunately threatens to destroy even the little of the obelisk which is left unimpaired. If the weather is fine

I shall try to be home Monday week. Give please my love and respect to our Dearest Mrs Will and tell her that really miss her.
Give my love to Miss Frederica Jessie Miss Minnie and all our Darling little friends including Mary too. Have pity on me Dear Mrs Will, I had eight letters to write so I must finish yours at least.

Good bye.

Yours affectionately
Rebecca A. Vezey

Mrs Cheysant sends her love to Mrs Will and respects to you with Wishing
