

Chicago Nov 24/68

My dear Dr Hill

Our mutual friend Mrs Cortright tells me that you & Mrs Hill are coming to Chicago. Will you allow me to offer you the hospitalities of my little rectory. You are not a stranger to me. You & I have been since my childhood so accustomed to read of you & hear of you that I feel sure I know you, & it will give me real & sincere pleasure to have you at my house.

I am obliged to enclose this in an envelope to Miss Cottam as I do not know your address. Please let me know what day & what hour, & I will try to meet you if you come unexpectedly. My address is 45 Peck Court, Drive
New Brunswick
Very truly yours
Clinton Locke
