

called on me on Thursday but I was out, he left the Ten Dollars however which I shall keep till I hear from you how you wish it disposed of. I also sent a check for one hundred dollars to Mr Moore and next week shall call on Mr Aspinwall for the amt as requested by you. I hope and trust that many blessings and much happiness are in store for you both, and that it-

New York.
May 8th 1869.

Rev D. W. Will. D.D.

My dear Friend.

I trust that by this you are well off the banks and bowling along before favorable winds. Miss Sewell and I saw you and Mr. Will as you passed by us at the end of the pier; your good vessel came up against the end of the pier with a pretty hard knock and came very near tearing away part of the bulkhead. The Rev. W. Callahan will not be long before we meet again. Miss Mason was very sorry not to have seen you to say good bye.

Charles is well and unites with me in love to you and Mrs Hill. Your letter to W^m Bruce bridge went per Douan.

Ever yours very truly
John C. Congreve.