

100 W. Monument
Baltimore, Sept 21st

My dear
& venerated friend,

I rejoice to hear of your safe coming across land and sea, and to learn good tidings of those at home.

I had fully expected to have you for my guest during your stay in Baltimore, but on the great press upon me, I

Bishop's hands, who has held them fast for ten days or more. More of the order was met. I hope another secure or Special Commission for the Greek to the Churches, and for our Missions & Chapels especially all Christian countries abroad.

I send the 1/2 D. Money to Parrish's.

have applied to our mutual friends, two or three squares from my door, Mr. Chs. Taylor and Sister whom you have seen and entertained in Affairs, who open their doors to you with great pleasure.

I will prepare them to receive you October 2nd

Your papers I have looked over with great interest.
They are now in our

Hoping to see you very soon,

I am yours, Dear Doctor,

With affectionate remembrances

To, Leeds

In Rev. Dr. Hall

The friends of Antislavery