

My wife & all these fine friends will cordially

Justly of the S.

See - House,
Buffalo.

Sep. 27, 1871.

Dr. Hill & Co.

Dear Dr. Hill,

Welcome, welcome welcome! I have just returned from my law & the duties following: your letter & dear Mrs. Hill's fill me with gratitude & joy. Wares I could then it, by any just efforts in furtherance of your plans.

While you were writing to me, Sept.
20th., I was speaking to my congregation about you, little imagining you were so near. I spoke of you as an oldest missionary & of your work as among the noblest our Ch. has ever undertaken. This will

P.S. Please say to my friend Dr. Denison, that I have written him, by this post.

praise to you, how truly I hear you on my heart.

Mr. Hill's letter reveals to me another strange failure of the post, to get my letters to you. Some fatality seems to clog our correspondence. But for that wretched failure of the Vienna letter, my son-in-law -
dash, with my wife & children were

have spent that winter in Athens! It was paper near Naples, much less satisfactorily. But, it is the will of God that these things should be;
& C. J. Christians cannot murmur. I am charmed to receive from Wm. Hill's school, that copy of the Symbol. It shall have as noble a place on our walls, as I can find. I think of setting it up in the Cathedral rather. So send this to

Dear Mrs. Hill: as I shall not be able