Oct. 21st 1871.

Rev. Dr. Hill

Dear Sir.

On Tuesday
I enquired at the Mission Rooms, and the Seven had not been heard from there. If it has not yet reached Baltimore, please let me know on what vessel it was shipped, and the date of shipment.

The Idy presented to Mrs Hill on her Golden Wedding. I purchased and when you return from Baltimore will you please bring it with you and take it back to Mrs Hill again as a gift from me.

I do hope the articles are being appreciated in Baltimore.

I have received a letter from Bishop Whipple and another from Bishop Clarkson, acknowledging the receipt of a Floral Album, or Book of Flowers from Athens, and both express themselves so beautifully, I must copy and send to Mrs Hill as soon as I have leisure.

I hope and trust that you continue well and that you are in frequent receipt of good news from Mrs Hill.

Please accept much love from my Son and daughter, and best wishes from affectionately.

Mrs J. C. Hall.

Rev J. Hill D.D.
Baltimore.

In the Preface to Euphrasia's printed letter, ^{prepared by Miss Emery.} I am sorry to notice a mistake stating she is a member of the school. It may, or may not be of much consequence, but I am sorry.

From
Mr. Hall - N.Y.
