Rev. J. Hill
~~Atkins~~

Dear Sir

We had the pleasure last on the 26 May, since when we have been favored with your valued favor 29 uttimo handing order for Sundries for which please accept our thanks. — I presented our invoice but he declined paying the Fifteen pounds until he had seen you again as he appeared to be under the impression that you intended it to Balance the account.

We now enclose you Statement of Sundries forwarded per ~~Boats~~ which includes the whole of your esteemed order with the exception of the Malaga Raisins of which we have none we can recommend the rain having spoiled them and as there is no one here who keep them but ourselves we signed to say this portion of your order is left out. — Present you a few of them we have to show you what they are

Trusting the present shipment will give you the usual satisfaction

We remain

Yours obediently
Geo. Sears of the Board.
