My dear Mr Hill

I have received your kind letters and I am so glad to hear that you are quite well. I was very sorry to hear that dear Mrs Hill has suffered a little but thank God that she is better now. I think that if you would come this summer at Constantinople the change of air would do so much good to dear Mrs Hill and I would be so happy to see you, Mr Blackstone has kindly offered to take your place in the meanwhile I hope of coming soon to Athens to see my brother and then I shall decide you to come back with me. You said in your last letter that dear Miss Elizabeth was coming to Constantinople on business

- Papa went everywhere to ask for her and see whether she has arrived but we could not find her anywhere, be so kind dear Mr. Hill to give me her address and where she lives because I want to go and see her very much. What a lovely day we have today I am so glad that summer is coming soon. How ungrateful you must have thought me dear Mr. Hill for having neglected so long to write to you indeed you must believe that I continue to love you very very much as also my dear Mrs Hill whom I shall never forget in my whole life. Baron Crocker who was a short.
