5th Sep: 1857.

My Dear Sir,

It is now some months since I had the pleasure of writing you, and a very long time ago now, that you favored me with any of your welcome communications - I am very anxious to know if you have ere this, succeeded in getting my very long standing claims settled? but hope by the receipt of this the long wished for result will be realized, being desirous of having a remittance, and by return of post, hope you will be enabled to send me a Draft on London - - -

Our position with regard to India is very serious, but the preparations making are very formidable, and a severe example is necessary, which will most assuredly fall on the heads of the mutineers, who most richly merit whatever treatment they may receive, for their diabolical treatment of females and infants, to say nothing of what the European officers have suffered —

Last week, Mr. & Mrs. Hanson & two Daughters from Smyrna were here, they are returning very shortly to the East, and it is very probable you may see them on their way to Smyrna

We have had very fine harvest weather, and the crops thank God, are good, and gathered in fine condition — Mrs. Rothwell joins in kindest remembrances to Mrs.
Hill and your good self, and in the hope of hearing from you in a few days, I remain,

My dear sir,

Yours most truly

W. Sabbot Rothwell
