

Waltham - Nov. 29. 1850

My dear G. -

As you know
 after I received your letter I had an interview with the Bishop of Waltham
 and learned from
 him that he would not listen to any

such changes proposed
as he contemplated by
the lady at Athens,
as he said but he wd
write to you to that effect by this Post -

As my son
said you see
he firmly fixed in
the opinion of my

A your ever patient, for any intricacy of the nature to have a chance of success, still I think you would wish to be in writing it over to the British & to me.

I shall, of course, say but a syllable on the
subject to myself but the British, for the best

such vagaries are talked of in London

I hope that you would bring several numbers
from the London Press
for me some nice
a number of one with the 2<sup>d</sup> & 3<sup>d</sup> numbers

one with a volume of it - I am to the London
press your friend
J. J. Jones
