

London the 28th February 1861

W. Hill & Miss Baldwin

Dear Mr Hill

I received both your letters of the 2 & 15 inst. & thank you for kindly informing me of my sister's progress & that she still enjoys the favor of Mrs Hill & Miss Baldwin we received all her presents my sister replies to her today

As regards Miss Baldwin's account I was going to remit the money through some Banker of your city but I am very thankful to you for relieving me of this trouble by drawing on me in a regular business way. I paid your draft on presentation as Mr Cannon Copple will inform you

W. Hill

The panic amongst all the Levant houses is such that really everybody is justified in not trusting anybody. as you say it is like a storm that passes way. but I wish to impress on you that the violence of this storm is without parallel or regard in the Levant trade, believe me that only those trees will stand it that have deep roots and good shelter I trust mine will prove such.

With my best regards for Mrs
Hill & Miss Baldwin I remain

Dear Sir, yours truly

Mr. Cavellay

W. Bowler
London

See S. Mearns
1851

professora
Kontsgei

1861.