

Dear Sir

Referring to your last and most obliging visit about Spaterpera, I leave the honour to repeat my proposition for the translation of Othello, Hamlet and Ro-mio and Julius Caesar, under the following conditions, 1st That these translations shall be as good as that of Lewis Jerome if not before.

2^d That the labours for every page original shall be payed discreetly.

3^d That all publications shall be payed by your friend of America and finished under my inspection.

4th That all shall be dedicated to the above friend under obligation to give me gratuitously

300 Copies of every publication, all rights of reproduction being considered my property.

Expecting answer,
I have Dear Sir the honour to be,

Yours most cordially

A. S. Mill

P.S. Permit, if you please, my respects to Mrs. Mill
