

My dear Sir,

The sole object of my note was to put you in possession of a fact which it was desirable for you to know, ^{as quickly as possible} if you were writing to Cambridge. As to the reasons which have led to Mr. G. Young's decision

I have no doubt but he will explain them to you himself when you meet, and therefore think it best not to enter into them.

Yours truly

W. Shewson
