

April 24th - 1894

My dear Sir

As we all seem to agree upon the eligibility of the proposed site for the Church I think it would be desirable
to press on it forthwith

It would be fair to ask him how many of his "rich"
-retains; I presume
you can either send at once that your
will takes it for him
or you can let it
stand until you
hear from him -

J. P. Rogers

in the number of the bank may procure
us another £100 in England -

Principle is this
what ever says
he will take the
"P. M. & J. Co." if we wish him £50
he, we shall buy
any means think

Answer. Same day.

Mr. Bracebr. has anticipated the proposition I should have made therein in rel. to the P. Lot, by his letter recd yesterday & I am authorized as his agent to take said lot on his ac.

I have already expressed my opinion of the eligibility of the prop. site & acting for Mr & Mrs. B. - I am not called upon to say, "buy it" - for obvious reasons, unless I have already mentioned by you & which

In that I do not wish to repeat a thing as unpleasant, I would by all be relieved from any further ~~concern~~ with the matter. My refusal or consent can be of valueless now. I do not wish you to think me fastidious, but I must try to decline any further connection with the proposed Church & shall feel most happy to be relieved - &c &c -

The above is only the substance of what I wrote to Sir B. and you.
