

Colburn Lang. 17. 1839. H. A. H.

Dear Sir

On my return home I find your note respecting to me now.

I should at all times have great pleasure in receiving you, but I beg of you not to introduce the subject of the spot of ground which adjoins your house, for the experience of the last ten days convinces me that there is too much to be said.

much feeling mixed up with it to render it an eligible site for the Church:

Mr Braithwaite in his last letter to Mr Lewis shows no decided preference for this site unless it is evident from that letter and all his proceedings in the matter that he has had one object in view viz to build the Church upon the best spot we can find, and as I am quite sure that the selection of the Chillean is ~~ground~~ ⁱⁿ ~~substantially~~ warranted under the circumstances of the case - disappearance of the spot in question, I shall certainly be as party to the purchase of it, such in conjunction with the subscibers who are at present endeavoring to select another

I am

Dear

Yours truly

Wm

I shall be very glad if you will allow me to be your correspondent on any subject excepting that of the spirit of your new game house -
