Dear Sir

It is possible that my friends Mr & Mrs Cooke of this city may recall their tour to Greece, in that event may I beg the pleasure of introducing them to you.

Your kindness to all America and is so well known & was so lavishly bestowed upon myself, that I have no hesitation in requesting for my friends your attentions, especially as my regard for them induces me to believe that you would not willingly leave them in Athens without the advantages & the honor of your acquaintance.

With you assure Mrs Hill & my other friends in Athens of my deep respect & very sincere regard.

I am Dear Sir

Your Obedt Servt

R F Fleming
