London.

May 4 - 1841

Sir,

I am directed by the Committee of the Athenæum to invite you to the house of the Club, for a period of two months. During that time, you will be entitled to every privilege enjoyed by the Members, subject in common with them to its regulations.

As the number of distinguished Foreigners who can in conformity with the rules of the Club, be admitted to its privileges at one time, is strictly limited, I am directed to request that you will inform me whether your engagements will permit you to avail yourself of this invitation;—and if you should leave London before the expiration of the term of this invitation, that you will have the goodness to apprise me of your departure.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your very obedient humble servant,

Edw Magrath Esq
