

I did not anticipate returning to my beloved friends before witnessed at Liverpool a better picture than usual of the letter that you must have written from that place to the with you at all times. On the 14th of the month after the day of Oct 14, and I received your letter from the to the steamer then I received your letter from the truly my dear sister mine brother the love but of reality we in all ways so that my soul is in much distress and I trust my place will be in the old paper the the prayer of the Publisher we are writing from the very My wife she is in a state of great interest in I am delighted, and I come the bearing of effect. It has been the bread of my soul since I got the Mr. Eastman's W. J. Brown W. J. Brown W. J. Brown in a way that would have delighted you particularly I must these coming parties not review to the that are so dear to me. I am in a great deal of Mr. Brown (who writes) writes last week of the and the views of the book which he has published and appeared at the same time that Mr. Brown's journal delegates treating of the subject of the school at which we are so much interested on the subject and I am quite assured that we should have the long conversation with the De la De la De la I Brown and many others your school and having the blessing of you, many facts to purchase these have been made to me what they say believe I believe I am convinced of what every church should be that God's will has given us to make these who receive it to with a view of them. I enclose copy for you what you can judge the same letter five papers which the abstract. During the conversation it was remarked that receives the catechism into his school, and has it taught.
I observe (Mr. King) however that his conscience was not or mine, that one might do a thing conscientiously, or without along his conscience hurt, which another man could not that for me to receive the catechism and have it taught, must I believe it, or I must use deception to pretend to receive when I do not, or pretend to teach it, or then not to teach it ask the contrary, and that I wished to conduct in this matter in every thing with open eyes and perfect sincerity. Mr. King is for it is not this quite an imputation upon one's conscience for I conclude Mr. H. has attacked who knoweth & judgeth. We were kept that I think in regard to a reason due to the both as it is in Jesus, and our own as well an account of the numbers of the members in the school the various boys, was immediately in case if it was possible we have now each morning we to believe the reports of the through our are different. I quietly unrolled the last day under the school these were present 708. It will be no for my dear Mother, I wrote particularly on the subject of Catherine to the Committee in their work information Mr Southgate has lost the confidence of nearly all because he has sought to gloss over too much the darkness and error he has gone to remove, and now the very has he done? If we are enabled to go on it will be through the Lord in the presence of his mercy for them of Satans enmity, we are engaged by our Lord to go on they will not be val of our trust & alone in the Lord Mr. G. has since me to request you to inquire & looking for her in some private family of people, & looking going with me for me, which is very wise in the decline not place upon longer to entertain strangers, much we are but to the hope of sustenance many in our service, but of the many worthy gentlemen we try very hard to all, but in the whole of them some have a little or more in desire to go must comply with the request in the desire to go immediately to his own place, perhaps perhaps it will be to have a week or so we will not go any more to my house Mr. W. informed me that Mr. K. has been to more account of her eyes, I want to write to you and then translate in English a little, the text of her the time arrive, that I may fulfill a promise, I had made Mr. & Brown who is to give a donation to the Church I wish also of pupils to have one stole draped in the Church The Misses not put so much work upon it as the Misses important to obtain something of work May the Lord be with the beautiful witness of the I have been since the 1st the day of our safe arrival after a voyage of 14 days a most prosperous one and in every respect pleasant. I have the metacopied on my arrival I went with all the passengers to the State and met to inform Mr. Justice who in the time make to me and made in every respect to always with him. My friend remained at the State and was to go to Boston. I found a letter from Mr. G. & and said to him immediately but strange to say I have not heard of or seen him since. I have at a life to request that with a new spirit and enjoyed the delight of quiet we a kind & affectionate and the Wife & I feel as if I had known them before. Mr. D has given you something very nice for my Family, and I think our school will be much benefited here. I am walking, altogether by faith now, and cannot tell in what way the Spirit will lead them to Grace. Oh how I wish my dear brother like this in my last journey without one of my own as Protector. For a safe lodgement in my little room, my upon my dear dear Family, & my own in London attending the ambassadors and has spoken at the Wesleyan meeting when I come to visit see you & see the elegance of the Mission, the interesting which is now complete. It is the perfection of good taste. Mr. Smith is very much like his brother but more talkative. He gives me a kiss every night so you must know that I am a favourite. Few have so much affection showing them as I have received from my little niece. I certainly ought to strive to do in all things the doctrine of my profession for Mansfield and the favoured bestowed upon your Family.

Miss Mearns left me for London expecting to have found me after she had written to Atherton in direction. She is quite in her ways, and how she can surmount courage to go to the East. Much to be desired I cannot imagine. I hope to be with you in time and shall soon decide which way I shall go.
Mr. Bruce being uniform in the Miss Carricks have left and the Miss Wicks, whom I hope to see before I leave England.
May 13th It is now two days since my cousin & nephew Mr.
B. were at Birmingham from which place he came immediately after his return from Hampshire where he was with Mr. B. when I arrived and as the season being not here from them I did not know quite yesterday the contents of your last letter, which are in the full of unexpected information, and deeply so I sympathize with you my beloved sister, but we must suffer persecution for the cross of Christ and let us thru since the wrath of Man shall praise Him and let us remain in the strength of His grace and the for us if we faithfully serve Him & faithfully love I shall wait news from others and put my trust in God who will make His way plain before my feet. He has been very near me, and let Him be our comfort. My wife having no desire but to do His will. I received a letter written on the 28th April by the G. W. P. which letter she yesterday all were well. I also had a letter from who wrote most encouragingly. It is a strange at the same moment, the whole current of feeling has become strong in our favour, at it should be should work against us, let us love the enquire of the Lord who will answer wants prayer, give my love to dear sister and my remembrance to all who would

I have felt a kind of great joy in these days and what we see for hours of the English. The British feel we are to know what are the changes brought to pass in the future and the future and what the I have been to see them and see the important with the same show movement in our country and How the people are with the hope of good things by the work to be done. You shall find it in the
by the work to be done. You shall find it in the

Paul - autograph a piece of - three twists - with several other away the same - the same

Dear Mr. ...
...