

My dear Sir I have not how to express my feelings of scorn & surprise at the behaviour disclosed in the statement you have forwarded. It seems as if one had contended with the other in the race of business. Can you face the public in Greece & America I cannot imagine. It is a disgraceful & no honourable part. I had almost a mind to go to Lexington to hear Garrison's account of the matter for which we would that he expected him there. But I feared I might be too late. It is well he is gone at last. I suppose not to return to Greece. Thus no doubt will soon be the fate of the other things & Benjamin. This has done evil enough for a whole generation & must I should think be reported. indeed if there be any real justice in their Board they should make enquiry by committee. Just before all parties should have ceased to be active how & why the public institutions have ceased to be active & what the causes as I suppose. I will send you a power of attorney & I shall be giving myself the power to revoke it when you go back. by accident I have your arrangement about the bank was the best you could make for me & if the river is out. The reflux in the minds of those seduced, will come & I think you will be able to take it at its flood. by establishing some thing which you retain, during the winter. I expect to see some great changes in June or another spring - with all our sincere feelings for you all, & I am perfectly with you sent of sudden change - I also feel that I do not know the whole case or have told all the reasons - nor is there any need that I should. The thing was not to be avoided no doubt, & the cure by amputation of the whole limb was probably the best - this State to be possible, tho' not proved - so there is an end of that. I am glad Mary B. will bear this equally well. It has been a great pleasure to me to think that you have returned for the moment upon Thara. We have been much distressed with various rumours of war - Garrison's official conduct has been the order of the day here as every where in the land. I feel sure that the people have believed admirably. The times are fast changing & this winter will be a very busy one.

in a book of art or history. For the most part, the artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector.

It is a book of art or history. For the most part, the artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector.

It is a book of art or history. For the most part, the artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector.

It is a book of art or history. For the most part, the artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector.

It is a book of art or history. For the most part, the artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector. The artist's work is not in the hands of the public, but in the hands of the collector.

via Palamou of the same to the Athens

Athens
Athens

Price

July 2